Originally established as Woodrow Wilson Junior College in 1935, Kennedy-King College (KKC) offers its students many diverse pathways for their education. The college’s primary focuses are in construction technology through Dawson Technical Institute, one of its satellite locations, and culinary arts and hospitality management through the Washburne Culinary & Hospitality Institute, French Pastry School, and several restaurants. KKC also has a growing addictions studies curriculum, as well as a popular automotive technology program.

Tuition and Paying for College
Kennedy-King College prides itself on offering an affordable college education to everyone who walks through its doors. Below is a brief overview of tuition costs for credit courses. For a more extensive overview of tuition, visit www.ccc.edu/tuition

Kennedy-King College also offers the Star Scholarship to eligible CPS students. Star Scholars attend City Colleges free of cost—tuition and books! For more info on Star Scholarship requirements, visit www.ccc.edu/starscholarship
