

KENNEDY-KING COLLEGE

Originally established as Woodrow Wilson Junior College in 1935, Kennedy-King College (KKC) offers its students many diverse pathways for their education. The college's primary focuses are in construction technology through Dawson Technical Institute, one of its satellite locations, and culinary arts and hospitality management through the Washburne Culinary & Hospitality Institute.

Kennedy-King College offers a wide range of certificate and associate degree programs. You can save thousands of dollars by earning your associate degree here, then transferring on to a four-year college or university.
