Become a Gateway Scholar

Take college classes at half the price for up to four semesters

The Gateway Scholars program is designed to help students like you move on to college and earn your certificate or degree.

If you have taken classes to prepare for your high school diploma or learn English at City Colleges of Chicago, you may be able to take college credit courses for up to four academic terms at half price.

Students in the Gateway Scholars program can get other kinds of help, like:

- Free loaner laptops to do schoolwork.
- Childcare for young children at most colleges.
- Food pantries at each college with free, healthy food.
- Tutoring services to help you do well in class.
- Access to the Wellness Center for counseling and other health services.
